

List of questions that could be used to start conversation between older and younger sisters

1. How did you learn the Truth about God's plan with the earth?
2. What role does prayer have in your life?
3. When and how do you read the Word of God?
4. What have you been learning from the Word lately?
5. What have you been praying about lately?
6. Who are your closest friends? What keeps you close to one another?
7. Have you ever had disagreements or tension with friends? How did you navigate that? What brought peace?
8. How have you responded to jealousy over the years? Have you ever been jealous of someone else? Has someone else ever been jealous of you?
9. What is your favorite hymn?
10. What are some practical bits of advice you can offer concerning a woman's day-to-day life?
11. What is your favorite verse from the Bible?
12. Do you have a hero? Who is it?
13. What is your favorite book?
14. Have you ever endured a personal tragedy? Tell me about it. How did you survive? What did you learn about God through it? What Scripture helped – or helps – you to survive tragedy or crisis?
15. What is the best thing a woman can do in the midst of suffering?
16. What must a woman believe in the midst of suffering?
17. Have you ever walked with someone else through a season of suffering? How did you love and serve them best?
18. What are the most helpful things a woman can do to care for a suffering person?
19. How can a woman love a lonely person?
20. What is a physical challenge you've endured? What have you learned from that experience?
21. Have there ever been times when you thought God wasn't coming through?
Times when you struggled with disappointment or doubt?
22. What do you miss about the past?
23. If you could rewind your life, is there anything you would change?
24. What role has the ecclesia played in your life?

25. What are your best memories of the ecclesia?
26. How did you – or do you – serve in your ecclesia?
27. What are some of the ways a woman can bless her ecclesia and help it to thrive?
28. Where do you live now? What is your home like?
29. What are some practical ways a woman can “build her home”?
30. What have you learned about hospitality over the years? How can a woman make her guests feel valued?
31. What are your best tips in inviting guests, preparing food, preparing your home, and investing attention in guests?
32. What have you learned about loving people who are different than you are?
33. What is your favorite food to serve others in your home?
34. What were you like as a child?
35. What was your family like?
36. How did your mother and father impact you the most?
37. Over the years, what has it meant for you to honor your mother and father?
38. What were you like when you were my age? What were your strengths? What were your weaknesses? What would you repeat? What would you change from that time in your life?
39. Tell me about your formal education.
40. Did you – do you – have a career? If so, what led you to that field? Tell me about your job.
41. If you worked outside the home, how did you balance work-and-home responsibilities?
42. What are the greatest benefits of working outside the home?
43. What are the hardships of working outside the home?
44. What is/ was your relationship with your employer like? How did you get along with your co-workers and/ or employees?
45. How do you organize your day? What are the best things you do every day?
46. How do you care for yourself?
47. What are the best things a woman can do to care for her body? Her mind? Her spirit?
48. How has the Lord called you to serve others over the years?
49. What is the most important thing to keep in mind when serving others?
50. What are some ways we can practically love others?
51. How can a woman grow in her love for the Lord?
52. What are you passionate about?

53. What brings you joy?
54. How can a woman live her life with a greater degree of intentionality?
55. How are you making the most of your life in your current season?
56. What practical wisdom can you share regarding money?
57. What is your morning routine? What's the best way to begin the day?
58. What was your morning routine when you were my age?
59. What is your evening routine? What's the best way to end each day?
60. Did you ever have to "walk by faith and not by sight"? What comes to mind?
61. What is the best thing about the younger generation? What is its greatest strength? What is its greatest weakness?
62. What can keep you up at night?
63. What do you often wonder about?
64. What do you often worry about?
65. What is your greatest fear?
66. Have you ever travelled? Where did you go? What were your experiences?
67. What are your favorite traditions?
68. What's your favorite way to spend your birthday?
69. When you reflect on your life, how has God provided for you over the years?