

Napoleon - The Man of the Hour

Pouring out the wrath of God

Scene #	Overview	Vial #
1	During the height of the French Revolution, leader Robespierre is executed by the very process he started, leaving a void in France's government.	1
2	Bro. John Thomas is writing his third volume of "Eureka," an exposition of the book of Revelation.	1
3	The leaders of the most powerful European countries (England, Austria and Russia) make an alliance to attack France simultaneously. Meanwhile in France, the new leading party (The Directors) appoint a young, unknown general to lead France's small, untrained army into war against Austria.	1
4	Bro. John Thomas continues to work on Eureka. He introduces the 2 nd vial which teaches of British superiority at sea and Napoleon's rise from an unknown general to a dictator of France.	2
5	Napoleon leads France's army to attack the Austrian army in Italy/Switzerland once again.	3
6	Bro. John Thomas gives a public lecture on the significance of the 3 rd vial and Napoleon's work in Italy/Switzerland.	3
7	The leaders of Austria, Britain and Russia meet to discuss their failed attempt to stop Napoleon's army.	3
8	The Pope arrives in Paris to attend Napoleon's coronation as Emperor of France and repair the Roman Catholic Church's fractured relationship with France.	5
9	The coronation of Napoleon and Josephine, in which Napoleon demonstrates his increasing power and the waning authority of the Church.	5
10	Britain, Austria and Russia form a new alliance to extinguish the French threat. Britain manifests her naval expertise and obliterates the French navy once and for all.	2
11	In two decisive victories against Austria, Napoleon forces the Holy Roman Emperor, Francis II, to dissolve the Holy Roman Empire and abdicate any claim to the throne.	4
12	Bro. John Thomas explains the significance of the dissolving of the Holy Roman Empire and is visited by Bro. Coffman from Illinois.	4
13	Napoleon forces Tsar Alexander of Russia to implement a blockade of all English goods.
14	Napoleon tries unsuccessfully to convince the Pope to continue a blockade of English goods. When the Pope is unresponsive to his demands, Napoleon has him arrested and removes all his temporal powers.	5
15	Bro. John Thomas explains the 5 th vial to Bro. Coffman	5
16	God's purpose for him exhausted, Napoleon now begins to fail at everything he puts his hand to, beginning with his Russian campaign.
17	Bro. John Thomas gives a Bible class encouraging us to remain steadfast in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Napoleon - The Man of the Hour

Pouring out the wrath of God

Scene #	Overview	Vial #
1	During the height of the French Revolution, leader Robespierre is executed by the very process he started, leaving a void in France's government.	1
2	Bro. John Thomas is writing his third volume of "Eureka," an exposition of the book of Revelation.	1
3	The leaders of the most powerful European countries (England, Austria and Russia) make an alliance to attack France simultaneously. Meanwhile in France, the new leading party (The Directors) appoint a young, unknown general to lead France's small, untrained army into war against Austria.	1
4	Bro. John Thomas continues to work on Eureka. He introduces the 2 nd vial which teaches of British superiority at sea and Napoleon's rise from an unknown general to a dictator of France.	2
5	Napoleon leads France's army to attack the Austrian army in Italy/Switzerland once again.	3
6	Bro. John Thomas gives a public lecture on the significance of the 3 rd vial and Napoleon's work in Italy/Switzerland.	3
7	The leaders of Austria, Britain and Russia meet to discuss their failed attempt to stop Napoleon's army.	3
8	The Pope arrives in Paris to attend Napoleon's coronation as Emperor of France and repair the Roman Catholic Church's fractured relationship with France.	5
9	The coronation of Napoleon and Josephine, in which Napoleon demonstrates his increasing power and the waning authority of the Church.	5
10	Britain, Austria and Russia form a new alliance to extinguish the French threat. Britain manifests her naval expertise and obliterates the French navy once and for all.	2
11	In two decisive victories against Austria, Napoleon forces the Holy Roman Emperor, Francis II, to dissolve the Holy Roman Empire and abdicate any claim to the throne.	4
12	Bro. John Thomas explains the significance of the dissolving of the Holy Roman Empire and is visited by Bro. Coffman from Illinois.	4
13	Napoleon forces Tsar Alexander of Russia to implement a blockade of all English goods.
14	Napoleon tries unsuccessfully to convince the Pope to continue a blockade of English goods. When the Pope is unresponsive to his demands, Napoleon has him arrested and removes all his temporal powers.	5
15	Bro. John Thomas explains the 5 th vial to Bro. Coffman	5
16	God's purpose for him exhausted, Napoleon now begins to fail at everything he puts his hand to, beginning with his Russian campaign.
17	Bro. John Thomas gives a Bible class encouraging us to remain steadfast in the Lord Jesus Christ.

