

Abram & Lot Separate

Sunday School Songs for All

Words: Philip Gore
Music: Julianne Ingram

Allegretto ♩ = 112

The musical score is written for piano in 4/4 time with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#). It consists of two systems of music. The first system contains four measures, and the second system, starting with a measure number '5', contains five measures. The melody is primarily in the treble clef, while the bass clef provides a simple harmonic accompaniment. The piece concludes with a double bar line at the end of the fifth measure of the second system.

1. Look to the north and look to the south,
Look to the east and look to the west.
Abram all the land that you see,
Is for you and for your family!
2. Look to the north and look to the south,
Look to the east and look to the west.
Ever here your seed will then be,
Numbered as the dust that you can see.
3. Look to the north and look to the south,
Look to the east and look to the west.
Rise and walk now through all this land,
I will give it into your own hand.

* Underlined syllables are sung
across two notes.
