Meditational Hymn: I Ascend Into The Mountain

(Music Brother Dan Osborn, Lyrics Sister Sarah Osborn)

I ascend into the mountain,
Tho' my feet are on the ground,
To lift my mind on higher things,
Where heav'nly thoughts abound.

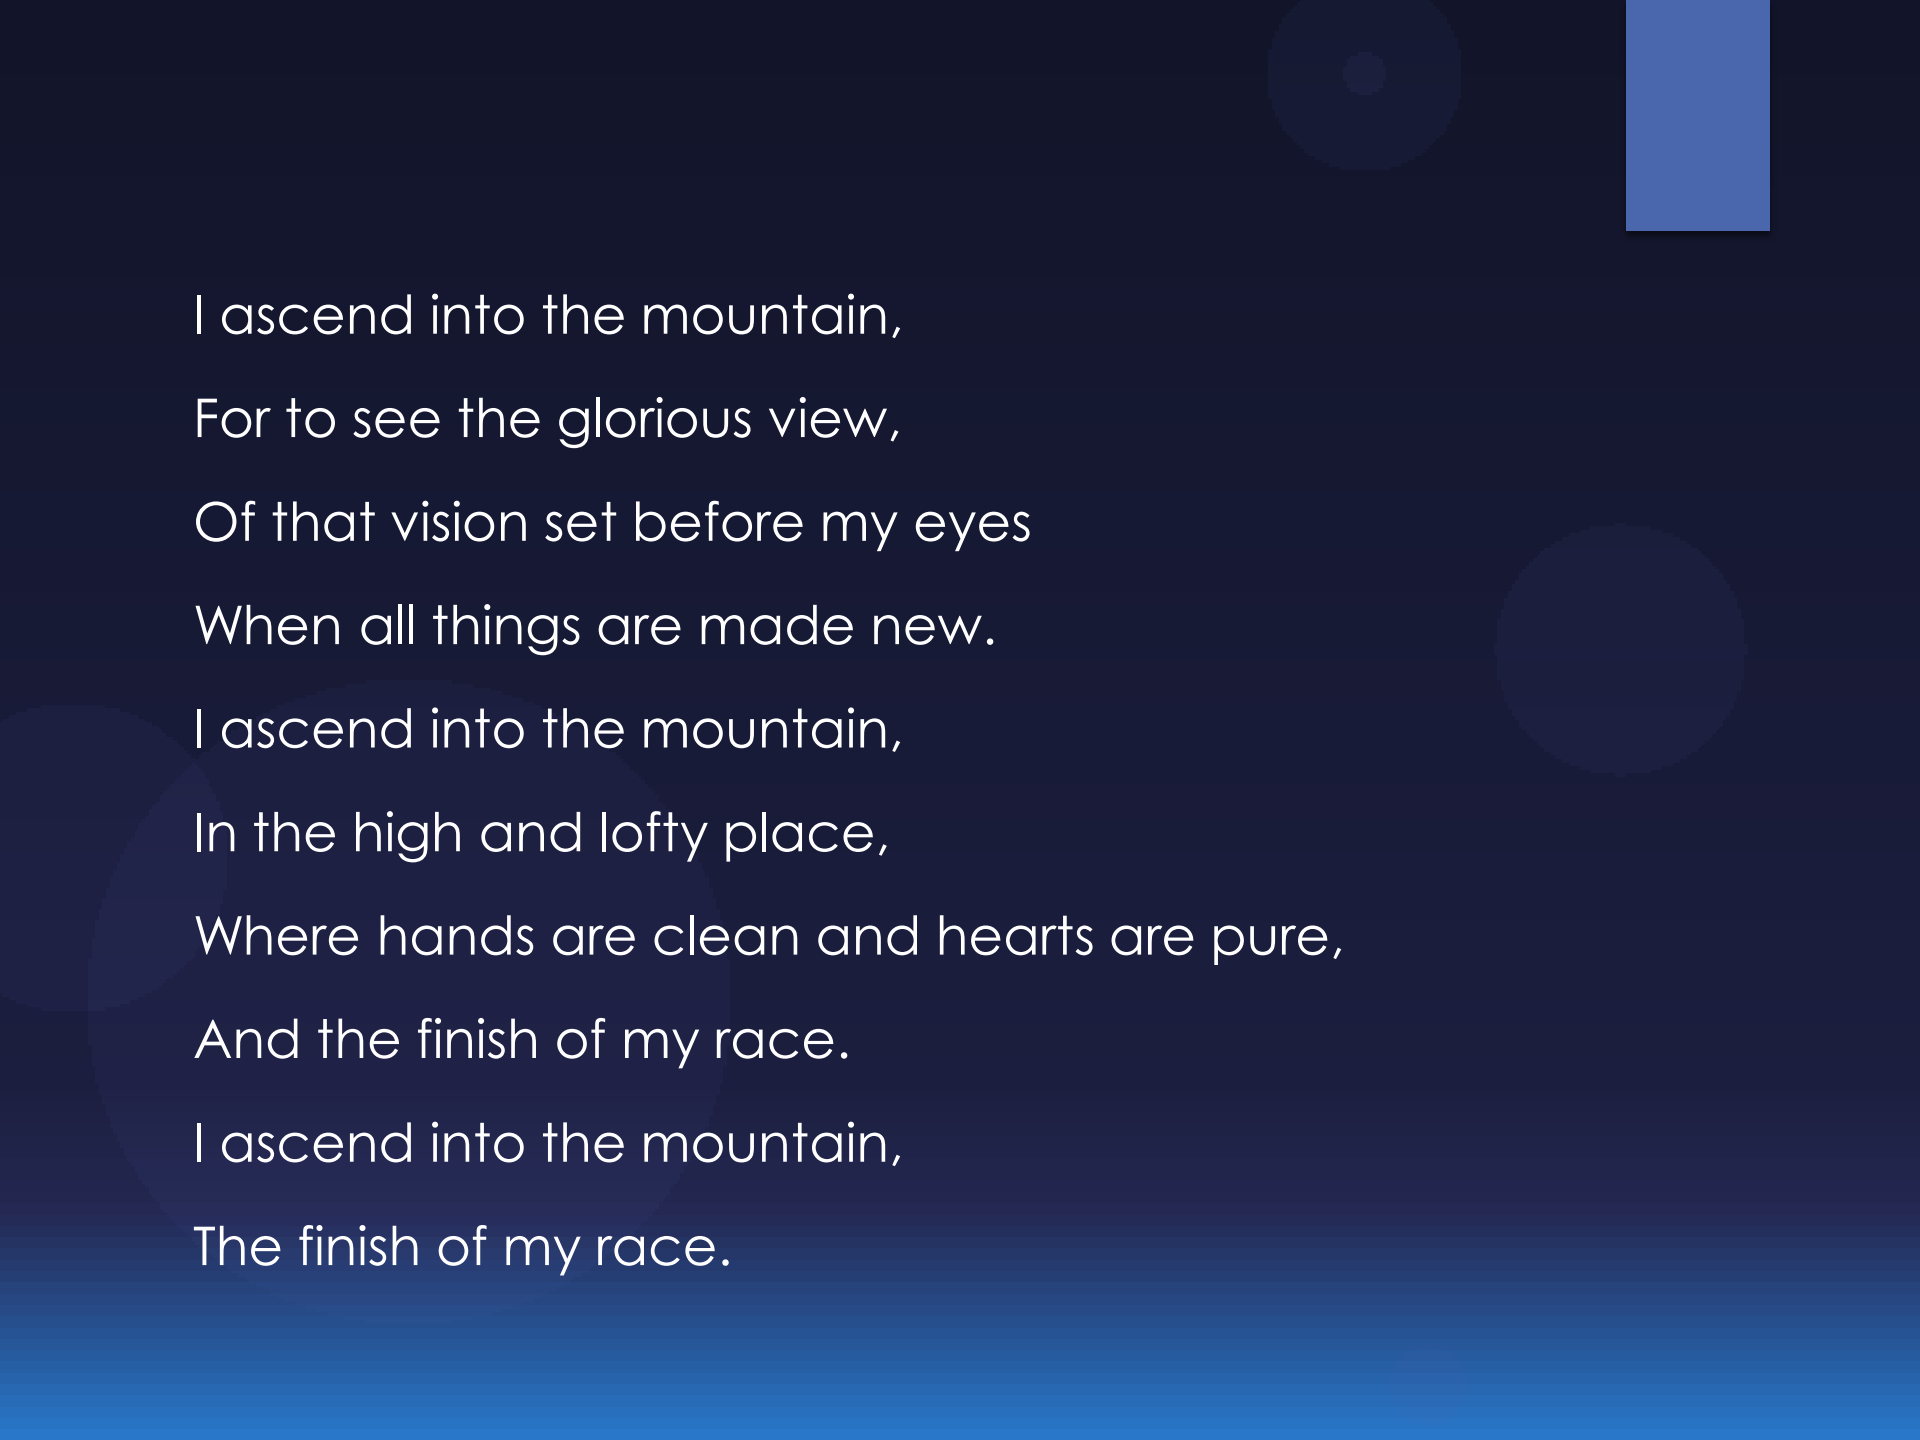

I ascend into the mountain,
and I leave behind the earth.

My idols left behind me,
Seeking spiritual rebirth.

I ascend into the mountain,
For to seek the Lord in prayer.
To ask for strength to face my trials,
To cast on Him my care.

I ascend into the mountain,
Tho' the climb is hard and long.
For there I hear the Master's words,
That teach me to be strong.

I ascend into the mountain,
For to see the glorious view,
Of that vision set before my eyes
When all things are made new.

I ascend into the mountain,
In the high and lofty place,
Where hands are clean and hearts are pure,
And the finish of my race.

I ascend into the mountain,
The finish of my race.

Run To The Lord And Live

(Sister Sharon Carroll)

All ye that thirst come to the source of living waters;
Forsake ungodliness and follow what is good.

For in God's mercy He has offered us the greatest blessing,
Everlasting life to you He'll give
So run to Him and live

CHORUS:

Seek ye the Lord,
while He is found

Call Him while He is near;

With all your heart,
return to Him

Yahweh abundantly forgives.

Incline your ear and hear the Holy One of Israel,

Come unto Him delighting in His Words of truth

And God will make with you a covenant like faithful David

Everlasting life to you he'll give

So run to Him and live.

CHORUS:

Seek ye the Lord,
while He is found

Call Him while He is near;

With all your heart,
return to Him

Yahweh abundantly forgives.

Praise to the LORD who is our strength and our salvation,
Proclaim to all the world
The wonders He has done;
For by God's gracious love He's Promised us the surest blessing,
Everlasting life for us He's won
Through David's greater son

CHORUS: (2x)

Seek ye the Lord,
while He is found

Call Him while He is near;

With all your heart,
return to Him

Yahweh abundantly forgives

Run to the Lord and live
