God called out to Abraham,
When the knife was in his hand
He obeyed, not asking why;
'Your son, Isaac, shall not die'.

REFRAIN

*As the sand on the shore and the stars in the sky,
In blessing your seed, they will multiply.
The gates of their enemies they will possess,
And in your own seed will all nations be blessed.*

Take the lad and set him free:
there's a ram caught in a tree.
You have proved your faith in me,
So this promise now will be...
