A ~~Sample~~ Ecclesial Newsletter!

This is a sample newsletter to find out if there is a general interest from the ecclesia to start one.

The newsletter would be monthly and its purpose would be to keep our ecclesial family updated on upcoming ecclesial events, member birthdays, to make everyone aware of pastoral issues that are in need of prayer, and to bring to light those areas where we are in need of help within the ecclesia.

We could also include a couple of devotional type articles including general thoughts on the readings for the month.

"But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the

Our Clothes

You're running late for your appointment. "What am I going to wear," you ask yourself. You go through your clothes, trying to find just the right thing to wear. "Ahhh, finally, I'll wear that," you say to yourself.

How much time do we spend on trying to find just the right clothes to put on? Instead of worrying about that, what about the kind of attitude we put on each day that we expose to those around us? Jesus says, "Seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things will be added to you." "For all you who have been baptized into Christ have clothed yourself with Christ."

Each day we must remember to "put on Christ", to "wear" him. We need to do our best to do the things that he did and treat others the way he treated them. This shows our Love for God.

Prayer

"Confess your trespasses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much." James 5:16

WHEN GOD MEASURES A MAN, HE PUTS THE TAPE AROUND THE HEART INSTEAD OF THE HEAD

... the Lord seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord looketh on the heart.

1 Samuel 16:7

President Lincoln had a disarming and engaging ability to laugh at himself, especially his own physical appearance. When Senator Stephen A. Douglas once called him a "two-faced man", Lincoln responded, "I leave it to my audience. If I had another face, do you think I would wear this one?"

Another time he told a group of editors about meeting a woman riding on horseback in the woods. She "looked at me intently, and said, 'I do believe you are the ugliest man I ever saw.'" Said I, 'Madam, you are probably right, but I can't help it.' 'No,' said she, 'you can't help it, but you might stay at home.'"

Although his likeness is widely recognized, Lincoln is not known primarily for his appearance, but for his courageous stance for restoration of the Union and the abolition of slavery.

So much is made in our culture today of outward appearance and material possessions. We do well to remember that it is our virtuous inner qualities that create a lasting reputation.
