The people took no notice of Samuel’s warnings. Meanwhile, a man called Kish had lost his _____ and had sent his son Saul to look for them. When they couldn’t find them, his servant suggested that they go and see the man of God. That day there was a _____ and as Samuel was going up to the sacrifice he met Saul on the way. One day Samuel came to King Saul with a message from God, "Go and smite Amalek and utterly destroy all that they have and spare them not". Saul was told to kill every man, woman, child and animal. The Amalekites were very wicked and hated Israel. But Saul did not do exactly as God had told him. He kept alive the best of the sheep and cattle and also the wicked king, Agag. When God told Samuel what had happened, Samuel was very angry and prayed to God all night. In the morning, he went to meet Saul and Saul boasted to him that he had done all the God has asked. When Samuel asked about the sheep and cattle that had been spared, Saul blamed the people and said that they wanted to offer the animals to God as sacrifices! Samuel said "To obey is better than sacrifice and to listen to God than the fat of rams". He then told Saul that "because you have rejected the word of the Lord, God has rejected you from being king". Saul was sorry for what he had done, he caught hold of Samuel's cloak and it tore in his hands. Samuel told Saul that the kingdom of Israel had been torn away from him and would be given to someone better.
