The spiritual quality of a man comes from the reasons why he is good. Jesus was not good because he thought he was a good person, he was not good so that he would be admired, he was good because he was doing his Father's will and his Father was good. He recognized that God is the source of all that is worthy in us and so there is no room for pride in ourselves. He made regular use of prayer not to get God to change His plans, but to enter into spiritual fellowship with God's purpose. Humility and dependence on God is the only way for God to work through us. Pray without ceasing.
