

Lesson 23 Nehemiah Builds The Walls Of Jerusalem

King _____ (who is also known as Artaxerxes) allowed _____ to return to _____ for a while. He gave him _____ of authority to the governors of provinces through which he passed; and also a _____ for the keeper of the king's _____ for timber to repair the city. This all came to pass because "the good _____" of his _____ was upon him (2:8). _____ days after _____ returned, he and a few _____ went out at _____ to see how badly _____ the walls and _____ of Jerusalem were! So Nehemiah told all the Jews a little later what he had planned. They all _____ to help him, and all _____ said, "Let us _____ up and _____!" Different families and _____ offered to build a part of the _____, and all got to _____ willingly! But the people in the land, led by _____ and Tobiah were _____ pleased that the _____ now had a _____ to help them build their wall. They did all they could to _____ or stop the work. They mocked their efforts, saying that even a _____ could knock down their _____ Nehemiah _____ his people to _____ in God, ignore the mockers, and to continue working.
