

Solomon's Wisdom

"Ask what I shall give thee,"
Said God to Solomon,
"Oh give to me a heart to know,
A light to guide me as I go,
To rule Thy people well."

He built the house of glory,
Of stone and timbers rare,
Of treasures stored in David's days,
And all the nations came to praise
The God of Israel there.

Then came the Queen of Sheba,
To see things she had heard.
She saw his might, his wisdom true,
She praised the name of his God too,
Oh! Blessed be the Lord.
