Elijah was a man, who all his trust did put
On God, who fed him bread and water by the Cherith Brook.
When everyone around, had nothing much to eat;
But God will care for you and me, as Elijah, he had meat.

A wind, earthquake and fire, were sent and then a voice,
That only small but said, Elijah, you must still rejoice.
For seven thousand loved, and followed all the way,
The God who cares for you and me, we follow still today!

CHORUS

God will care, God will care, God will care for us. (repeat)

CHORUS

A Widow and her son, were called upon to feed
The prophet when the brook was dry, provided all his need.
The son was raised again, because Elijah prayed
To God who cares for you and me, His love it never fades.

CHORUS

A contest it was had, on Carmel just to prove,
That God, He is the only God, for Baal would not move.
To help the wicked men, who only followed sin -
But God who cares for you and me, Yes! We must follow Him.

CHORUS
