

Psalm 1 Study Worksheet

1. Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.
2. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.
3. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.
4. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.
5. Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
6. For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Write out by hand in a notebook.

Make Connections:

1. Circle the word “blessed” with a green pencil.
2. Highlight in green every noun/pronoun referring to the blessed man.
3. Underline in green what the blessed man does and does not do.
4. Highlight in gray negative words such as not, nor.
5. Draw a black, wiggly line under references to the wicked or sinners.
6. Look for the word “like” - draw a circle around it and arrows from it that point to what it is comparing.
7. Number the characteristics of the tree.
8. Make a two column chart to compare the blessed and the wicked.
9. Highlight the words that describe what the blessed man does in verse 2, then look up these words in a Lexicon, and look through any cross-references for this verse).

10. What does it mean to walk in the counsel of the ungodly? (Look up the word “counsel” and look through the cross-references).
11. What does it mean to stand in the way of sinners? (Look up the word “stand” and look through cross-references).
12. What does it mean to sit in the sea of the scornful? (Look up the words “sit”, “seat”, “scornful”, and look through cross-references).
