

Jonah Song:

Now the word of the LORD came unto Jonah,

Arise, Arise – go to Nineveh!

Cry against that great city

Tell them I don't pity

The wickedness of man

Now the word of the LORD scared him greatly,

Jonah went to flee from God's presence.

He jumped into a ship, instead of going faithfully,

But soon he would see God's power in the sea

Now the word of the LORD, sent a great tempest

The men in the ship were afraid and cried,

They called upon their gods, false and horrendous

But Jonah came to see, he was the one reckless

Now the Lord had prepared a great fish to swallow,

Jonah from the sea, three days, and three nights.

He prayed and cried, prepared to follow

And soon he would see, light of the morrow

Now the word of the LORD came unto Jonah,

Arise, Arise – go to Nineveh!

Cry against that great city

Tell them I don't pity

The wickedness of man

Repent, Repent – ye of Nineveh

Forty days, Oh great city

For God does not pity

The wickedness of man

Repent, repent – so did Nineveh

God forgave that great city

But God does not pity

The wickedness of man
