

I will...

PERFORM

Willing

Inside the chrysalis an amazing change happens. The caterpillar dissolves, except perhaps some of its nervous tissue, and groups of cells called imaginal discs use the soup to fuel the cell division necessary to form the parts of the butterfly: an almost completely new creature.

It leaves its life as a caterpillar behind completely.

In our spiritual life, we also have to leave the old life behind.

Soldiers of Christ

Soldiers of Christ, arise, and put your armour on,
Strong in the strength which God supplies through His beloved Son.
Strong in the Lord of hosts, and in His mighty power,
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts is more than conqueror.

Stand then in His great might, with all His strength endued;
And take, to arm you for the fight, the panoply of God.
To keep your armour bright attend with constant care,
Still walking in your Captain's sight, and watching unto prayer.

From strength to strength go on; wrestle and fight and pray;
Tread all the powers of darkness down, and win the well-fought day;
That having all things done, and all your conflicts past,
Ye may o'ercome, through Christ alone, and stand complete at last.

Get to know a butterfly

The Viceroy

Family: Nymphalidae

Sub-Family: Limenitidinae

Latin name: Limenitis archippus

This butterfly looks very similar to a Monarch butterfly except for the black stripe on its hind wings. It lives in damp areas like marshes and swamps where willow, aspen and poplar trees grow. The female lays an exquisite pale green egg on the tips of the leaves of poplars and willows which hatch in four to nine days.

The little white, green, and brown caterpillar looks a bit like a bird dropping. It eats the leaves of the willow and poplar trees for the next three to four weeks, mostly at night. Then becomes a white, brown and black chrysalis and emerges as a butterfly in one to two weeks.

The later broods of the summer can overwinter as caterpillars. They wrap themselves in a leaf lined with silk they have spun, and secure the leaf stem to the tree so that it does not fall in the autumn. In the spring they have new leaves to feed on.

Psalm 51

(1) To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

(2) Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

(3) For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.

(4) Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

(5) Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

(6) Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

(7) Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

(8) Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

(9) Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

(10) Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

(11) Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me.

(12) Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit.

(13) Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

(14) Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

(15) O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

(16) For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.

(17) The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

(18) Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

(19) Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.
