

One night while Paul was preaching for a long time, a young man named Eutychus was sitting in the window sill and he fell asleep. Use your playdough to show him falling from the window! Don't worry, Paul used God's power to bring Eutychus back to life again!