

Paul at Athens

Multiple Choice: Circle ALL the Correct Answers!

- 1. The Jews in Berea:
 - a) shut their ears to Paul’s message
 - b) searched the scriptures daily
 - c) were not as faithful as the Thessalonians
 - d) listened eagerly to Paul’s message

- 2. Paul:
 - a) had to leave Berea because he was sick
 - b) left Berea and went to Athens alone
 - c) had to leave Berea due to the Thessalonians
 - d) left Berea with Silas

- 3. Athens was full of:
 - a) idols
 - b) believers
 - c) people who loved to think (philosophers)
 - d) men’s wisdom

- 4. The Areogapus or Mars Hill:
 - a) was a place where wise men discussed things
 - b) was a prison
 - c) was full of altars
 - d) had an altar to the Unknown God

- 5. Paul explained these facts about the Unknown God:
 - a) he is God of heaven and earth
 - b) he doesn’t dwell in temples made by man
 - c) he gives us life and bread
 - d) he is made of gold and silver

Short Answer

- 6. What did the Athenians like to hear? _____

- 7. What did the Epicureans believe in and how did they feel about God? _____

- 8. What did the Stoics believe in and how did they feel about God? _____

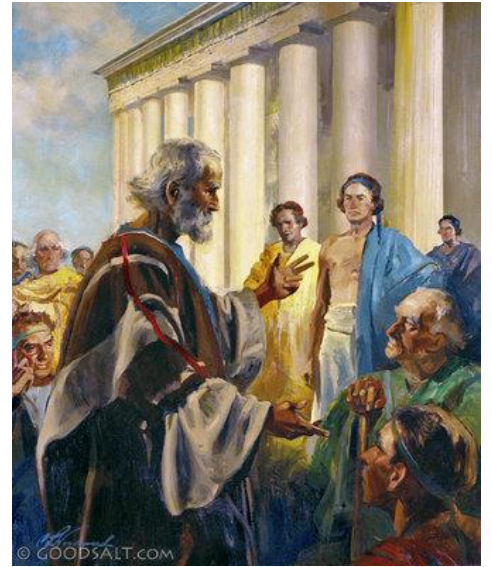

- 9. What do you believe in and how do you feel about God?

- 10. What one thing did all these philosophers believe in that many people still believe in today?

True or False

- _____ 11. People can be very smart in the knowledge of this world but not understand the wisdom of God.
- _____ 12. Luke and Timothy stayed in Philippi while Paul and Silas went on to Thessalonica.
- _____ 13. The learned men of Athens were fascinated with Paul's teaching of the resurrection and eagerly accepted it.
- _____ 14. No one in Athens believed Paul's message.
- _____ 15. Many people today are like the learned Greek philosophers, who love to feel they are very intelligent - but sadly they know nothing of the things that really matter.

Fill in the Blanks

16. A "philosopher" means _____ of _____.
17. The _____ of God can only be learned from the _____. If people will not read the _____, then no matter how hard they _____, they will never be "wise unto _____".
18. Paul told them, "Up till now they could say they did not _____ Him (God) but God is letting everyone know from now on that they must _____, for He has appointed a day of _____."
19. There were two classes of philosophers in Athens. They were called _____ and _____.

Thought Question

20. What effect would believing in an immortal soul have on the way you think and act?

